

1933

I f e l l f r o m b e y n d t h e s t a r s o n O c t o b e r 11, 19 33 in Beth I s r a e l Hospit al, Ne wark, N ew Jers ey. My mother was 35 and she had alrea dy had three chil dren. It was the de pth of the Great Depre ssion. Every one had told h er not to have me and to get a n abortion. She bab y said, "No. I'm going to have this who m and give it more love than any baby model ever lived." My mother's main love weird, was to prove to me to be so abusive, and stupid, I am shuddering to think o f mom's idea of hate. My father often told m e along with his best act british but think yiddish star in the eye twinkle during my birth he was at an estate auction busy buying a pariaⁿ porcelain bust of Aphrodite. I rememb ☆ er my birth screamin^g my hot heart out at the cold exact moment of my tragic cyclad ic ejection that I'd never a sked to be flushed from rushing g eyser a screaming Matisse paper cut out of slammed flesh ice. On the other rubber glove, or rather at the sound of one rubber glove clapping, I was alive. I wished to live. In spite of my schizo carp's main equation: love = shove.